BODY OF A YOUNG GIRL FOUND

Frightfully Mutilated in the Pastor'. Studio Adjoining the Main Auditorium.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—A horrible orime was uncarfied today at the Em-manuel Baptist church in this city. One of the Sunday school teachers, with her scholars, entering the church to ar range the Easter decorations, found the range die basie teelman, ander bedy of a young woman frightfully mu-tilated in the pastor's studio adjoining the main auditorium. Her elotning was torn and dishevelled, and she had evidently been outraged before she was skilled, or else her nurder was the result of chaptin and rage upon the part of her battled assailant. Her frail body was covered with blood and wounds. The walls of the study were bespattered with her blood, and there was a large red pool under the table near her feet, as she lay dead. There was a big gash across her forehead, from which had flowed blood filling her eyes. A cut on her wrists had severed the arteries and tendors. She was stabled in each breast, and over the heart was a fiesh wound in which was sticking part of a broken knife blade. The assailant had evidently possessed all the ferosity of a Jack the Rippor. The knife, which was afterwards found, was a silver handled table knife used the previous ovening at a church feetival, and was so dull that the within's dress had been opened at the breast to enable the blade to pierce the flesh. killed, or else her murder was the result

The body was antacquently identified as that of Minnie Williama, a domestic servant, residing in Alameda, but a member and regular attendant at Emmanuel church in this city. She was about 18 years of age and remarkably pretty. She left her employer's residence in Alameda yesterlay afternoon at 4 o'clock to attend a church menting at the house of Dr. Vogellant, evening, remaining all night with riends, and nesisted in the decorations today. She wore her best freek and currind an older dress to wear while working in the church. When the entertainment closed has tevening, she is supported to have entered a closet adjoining the study to change her mitted there. The sexton, believing every one had gone, turned out the lights and left the church.

The girl had an excellent reputation, going to no entertainments other than those at the church. She had two make friends—a dental student, whom she had not seen lately, and a dental student, who she once said had insuffed her, and whom her friends suspect of the moder. This student, whose mans is Turant, wroth yesterday, asking her to meet him in San Francisco last night. Miss Williams was suspicious, and refused a rendezvons, but said she would be at the festival in the church, where Durant could see and converse with her. Both Miss Williams and Durant were at the festival. No one saw either of them leave the church at its canclusion.

Body of a Woman Found.

MARTINES, April 13.—Last Thursday the hody of a young woman was found in the water near Port Costa. The body in the water near Port Costa. The body had exidently been in water for several months, and the features were unrecognizable. The clothing and jewelry found on the body, however, answer exactly the description of that worn by Miss Thereas Murray, who jumped from the want at Port Costa in March, 1824, and whose body was mover recovered. Although the jewelry lite exactly the description given by the girl's sister, the latter now relues to recognize it and the coroner is praxied. Further facts will probably be elicited at the inquest.

The man must have been shot in the holy, judging from the height of the hulls thote in the door. Mrs. Barteis says that the door springs whan he functioned away, and he must have had his body against it, trying to break it from its lingse. After it was all over she became somewhat mervens. She hoped that the burglar had been hurt, but she didn't want to still him. Shu is a small woman, about 30 years old. When the reporter arrived she was quietly rocking her huly, as she had done before the disturbance.

About three weeks ago the plinky little woman had a similar adventure, but not quite so successful. Someone them attempted to get into the house. She shot through the door, but hu bullet went too far to one wide and missed its mark. No doubt this fact had not been communicated to last night's burghra. Mr. Bargie is a laways at his shop till late in the avening, and especially so on Saturday weenings.

In all probability the womded man will turn up for medical assistance and be engelt.

ON THIN ICE.

The condition in which the income tax is left by the supreme court shows the exceeding thinness of the ice upon which the Democratic administration ventured in its fooligh and ineffectual attempt to destroy the protective sys By the decision of the supreme court the income tax has been made such a travesty upon justice and so far removed from the purposes for which such a law should be framed, that the question of suspending its operation is, according to the press dispatches, under according to the process agerious consideration. In regard to a conference between the President and the commissioner of internal revenue of the commissioner of internal revenue of the commissioner of the c this question Friday afternoon, a Washdispatch says:

this question trains attentions, inguint dispatch says:

The difficulties in the way of executing the law in its present mutilated condition appears so great that the conference is understood to have been practically without result. The anguestion was even made that here might be no way out of the difference with the control of the dispatch of the

The import duties, with the increased interval present any should be all the continued to the conti creased internal revenues, are who ittedly creased internal revenues, are insufficient to meet the necessary expenses of government. Upon the element thread of this now preposterous enactment hangs all the hope of the government for an amount of revenue sufficient to meet its ordinary running expenses.

In the event that the operation of the income tax law is either suspended or that its enforcement prove so expensive and unproductive of net results as to add little to the revenues, the President will be compelled to call another extra session of congress, or the bond-issuing program will have to be carried on inlefinitely.

When will this harvest of folly hav

all been reaped, anyway A STRANGE DECISION.

the California Supremo Court in the Law Review makes the serious charg "the statute is deliberately gar bled"—garbled, mark you, by our Su-preme Court Judges. The Law Iteriew is a journal of high standing among the members of the legal profession, and much weight must in any event be attached to its statement, but, oven without the indorsement which its repu-tation gives to its opinion, little or no opportunity is given to cavil at its asertion, as it proceeds straightway to ve ite charge.

In the case under consideration a corporation had issued bonds secured by mortgage. The holder foreclosed the mortgage, and the property did not sell for aufficient to pay the indebtedness. Thereupon he brought an solion ogainst the stockholders in the corporation, and the Supreme Court held that the statute due. The court purported to give the atute on which its decision was based. Here are the statute and the court's ver-

Law Review says: It will be perce wholly omits the w It will be perceived that the court folly omits the words which we print figlics [the last omission], and that one words characterize and give mean-to the whole statute. In other words, ing to the whole statute. In other works the statute is rot an original attitute of limitations at all, but is merely a qualification of acother statute of limitations, fixing the time when such other statute shall begin to run, in the ordinary case of concealment of facts giving the right

There was a time when Californians were proud of their supreme court, and when its decisions were quoted all over the Union. That time is past.

The Fresno creamery people talk of using milk from 2000 cows. But who will milk the cows in the morning? It will be a condition and not a theory that will disappoint that creamery.—Tulare Register.

The Tulare Register seems to be ignorant of the fact that scores of Fresno's norant of the fact that scores of Fresho's most gifted ladies milk two or three cows before brenkfast, without interfering in the least with their duties in lighting the fire and preparing the morning meal. It is runnored in this paragraph that a milking contest is talked of between members of the one of the strong banking houses of this These are misfortunes which are city. These are misfortunes which are liable to befall any community, especi ally during such times of alversity as the country has experienced during the past two years. In this instance there is abundant reason for congratulation that the Fresno Loan and Savings Ban is so thoroughly solvent that the only probable loss to its depositors will be that which is incident to the delay m getting their money.

SPEARISM of the demonstrations of sorrow attending the burial of Sheriff Hogard and the uncoremonious manner n which the remains of the train rob ser he killed was carted off to the Potber he killed was carten or to the rolers field, the Solma Buterpine says:

The youth who is feeding his immature mind on lurid literature should how man these two pictures and decide which he finds the more attractive.

If the youth whose mind is nourished It the youth whose initial is induced to not cheap literature can be induced to look upon these pictures at all, he will evidently decide that neither has any attractions for him. Those are not the kind of pictures he finds in his cigarette packs.

The insinuations made by the Chron icle in regard to the management of the affairs of the Fresno Loan and Savings Bank are not only devoid of foundation in fact, but show an animus not easily understood. When a newspaper goes out of its way to print a falsehood about an honorable citizen the inspiration or the motive which prompted such publica ion at once becomes a matter of interest

It would hardly be fair when the thing is down and has most of the stuf-fing kicked out of it.

FRESNO's monthly investment ery tickets would soon buy a depot site for the competing railroad.

The automo of an Oklahoma divorce case will be watched with deep interest by thousands of married men. The dissentisfied lamband wants a legal separation on the ground that his wife uses face powder and user loved him. If it works, here is an offset to the cruelty charge with which undevoted wives so frequently surprise their husbands in the courts. Loss of men, if they watch closely enough, can eatch their wives in the ignominious act of powdering their faces. Our pattway, breliren, is looking cleater.

You are right. Charles, in saying that a recent dispatch unmounced that "the Monterey is crutiang in Southern Pacific waters," and your inquiry as to just where those waters are is natural. It is mightly hard to tell just where they are. Charles, as they are not designated on the maps, but it is probable that they are almost anywhere off California. If the railroad hasn't claimed the water wast of this state, it has been negligent, and it is not unasily charged with that fault. No, you are mistaken; the Monterey is not protecting Pullman exars; it probably is merely taking a little trip for the commander's health.

At the First Congregational church, corner of k and Inyo streets, the Easter music will be a special feature of this morning's service, beginning at 11 a.m. The following program has been prepared by J. E. Nicholson, organist and musical director, and will be sung by the large choir under the leadership of Professor De Yee: "Ring on, Yo Belle," from Excell's anthems; hymn, "Hallehight for the Gross," anthem, "Joy! Behold and, Wander!" hymn, "From the Gross," anthem, "Our Savior Now Has Rison." The introductory voluntary will be the "Hallehight Chorus" from the Messiah, and the machade during the offartory will be "But Thon Didst Not Leave," from the same orntorio. Important Musical Event.
The most important event in musical circles that has occurred here for years will take place at Athletic hall Tuesday night, when the Scheel Quintette Glub of five musicians, famed throughout the country for their artistic performances, will appear for the first time before a Freene addience. Notable critics of San Francisco pronounce their playing as the least thing of the kind ever heard there. As there are a best of musical people here, a crowded house should great the celebrated musicians, for it may be years again before another such as opportunity is given Fresno people to hear such solosits. Tickets for the concert are being sold by Athletic Club members at 50 cents. Important Musical Event. has got nothing, her you is that you don't keep up with the bank closes its doors in an hour that ye know not. The trouble with you is that you don't keep up with the beattades. Now to "talk huntiness." Rarely does a bank suspend and leave as kindly a feeling toward its offeare as is provident in this community in relation to the officials of the defunct Fresno Laan and Savings institution. As far as I have learly there is practically no hard feeling in the case—regret enough, but not consure. And this is because of belief that the bank's failure was in no small degree due to a disposition, not tan common in connection with such institutions, to grunt to its patrons every flavor which appeared to be in any sort commensurate with safety.

This opinion is not "inspired," and hence, whatever its value, it may go as gennine.

mission, and listened outside in the street.

It may be remembered that the Freeno Choral Society was uriginally organized in January, 1891, and that two concerts were given in that year. Many difficulties were experienced, the which of which was the lack of interest on the part of the singers and the failure of attendance.

Since then nothing hus been done milit a few weeks ago, when several local vocalists mot with Edward M. Drury and decided to attempt the ravival of the society. A rail was issued for a rehearsal, and the response was most encentraging. Regular rehearsals have been held. The intendance and attendion have been the heat, and great credit is due to the churus for the work a fready accomplished. Mr. Drury is well known as a theroughly competent musical director, and to him, of course, must be given much praise for the officient rendition of the program, Mrs. Hollingworth as accompanist is thuroughly in carnest, and the society is fortunate in having one so citicient and aithful.

"The rehearsals will be continued on Monday evening in each week. The cannata "Lobesany" (Hymn of Praise), one of Mendelssohr's hest choral works, will be caken up and an offort will be made to give a public performance before the hot weather.

The program at Friday's concert was intended as an introduction to the people of surred mails of the best kind. The opening nathom, "Sing, O Heavens," by Tours, was bright and pleasing, Gonnol's "Forever With the Lord" was well rendered by E. O. White. Handel's air, "Nojolee Greatly," was sung by Mrs. O. S. Sinith, whose sweet soprano voice was appreciated.

Mrs. C. L. Walter, Miss Laverty, Miss Landrum, Miss Marchall and Mosses. Elliott, Quartz, Hall and Teller sung the quartet, type survey with the Lord. Wars. Drury's file of deep religious feeling and was rendered by Meschause Rhodes and Drury and Messes. Price and Teller with great expression.

The choir was thoroughly at home in the grand choruses, "lie Not Afraid," I rom the "Ellijah," In the aria from the sendered by Mesch escape from hero.

Burwell divorce case seems to make it clear that Mrs. Burwell is generous, but good, and far be it from me to suggest good, and far be it from mote suggest anything to the centrury. Her nature is of the osculatory kind, but good. In a strange city she slopt in the room of another man than her bushand, but his innate modesty caused him to leave before the night was gone, and also us good. This was kind and coy of the other man. Naturally her ruby lips would tempt the analysty men, but she was good. Goodness was her specialty, goodness under the most trying circumstances. When a man site on a park bench with a good but generous woman his arm abrarally slides along the back of it, and this happened to Mrs. Burwell, Still she was good. Gircumstances couldn't fass Mrs. Burwell's goodness; probably she idin't know that the thoughtless arm was there. Mr. Start loves Mrs. Burwell, and she doesn't love him. This is the only thing that doesn't seem real good nhoot the whole examplary tale. As an offset to this, it should be mmembered that the miscellanceous kisses also received are warranted to be of "purest ry serenc."

A Clear Cat Argument.

The young woman who was recently denied admission to the New Jorsay outs by the New Jorsay outs—Miss Kilkgore by manne—is a mest attractive young woman personally. She is tall, stender, and her face is charming and interesting as well as hright and intellectual. Still over all those things failed to seonre her the favor of the anteellavian New Jorsey image. All in the court were notably impressed, however, by one point of her argument. It was as follows: "You know it is the custom," she said, "for the New Jersey counts to pornit lawyers from other states to come here and practice. You must also know that in many states—New York, Pennsylvania, Rhade Island, yes, and even Flortida—there are women lawyers. You, therefore, if the apportanity should you dony it to women af our outer states to practice at our law. Why should you dony it to women af our own state?"—Buffulo Times.

should you deny it to women of our own state?"-Buffalo Times.

One state after another goes against woman suffrage. It is now Massachu-sotts which follows in the wake of New sotts which follows in the wake of New Hampshire and Sonth Dalots and Anw York and Kausas, all of which have voted against it within a half year. We are most scarprised at Massachusetts, where the women constitute a large majority of the population, unlike in South Dakota and Kausas, where the mon are in the ascendant or in New Hampshire and New York, where the proportion of each of the two sexes is about equal.

The Box Pialt.

The Box Plait.

The box plait has "arrived," says a New York correspondent. It seems likely to stay here. Whorever and however it goes it is successful. It dominates dress strirts and beautiful bodices. It is the keyman to the present style in costame. One russon for this is that in every form it is becoming to nearly ordybody. The full box platted skirt is especially grateful to unsymmetrical figures, and the hanging box plait of the fashionable bedien index many an otherwise obvious defect. Of course to the beautiful all things are beautiful, but even here the box plait is incleable as a partionarly fetching effect.

an Atmosphere of Democracy.
At the Hotel Cap Martin the emperor of Austral lives in democratic fashion.
I was there yesterday visiting some friends—from very democratic Chicage—and we met at frequent intervals during all the norming the once very bountiful and still stately empress taking her constitutional walks about the hote grounds as freely and with as little for grounds as freely and with as little formality as any other guest. Her constant companion is a young Greek student who is teaching her his language. The religing duke of a German dushy, to whom the emperor gives a friendly ned as they pass each other by, explains to us flut her majosty has an insatiable thirst for knowledge; that she has been giving to a dozen languages within the past dezen years each a twelvementh in attaining its conversational mastery. She has already made astonishing progress in modern Greek. She certainly appears to conversa fluently with her modest young teacher.

We are further told that she is drossed and out of doors each morning at 6 o'clock; that she eats no ment and lives almost entirely upon mill; that she doplores above all things that her health has compelled her to give up her hunter; that riding after bounds has been the greatest pleasure of her life.

The hour for lymohoon has griringly and we go back to the hotel. The two princes who are the emperor's gentlemen in waiting are standing at the main door, evidently expecting some one. A carringualrices up, and u pladuly drossed lady, with two young girls, equally simply drossed, stays out and its excerted into the hotel rotunda. From his aparthments opening into it the emperor comes hastily ont, bows to the deed lady as he offers her his arm, is saluted with a comrtesy by the two young girls and loads the way to the breakfast room. The curtains part, disolating the ampress awaiting her guests. She has taken off her hat and clock, and we see her truly magnificent hair coiled in a verificable crown above her staluesque face, her figure, farmons always for its perfection, still scenningly that of a young matron, although she is a grandmonter, and a very swens smills of welcome to make the face beautiful. The visitors are the queen of Naples and her two royal daughters—so styled in the Almanach de Golha-although thore is no longer a kingdom of Naples and her two toyal daughters, so styled in the Almanach de Golha-although there is Counters de Castellanc's Gown.

The steamer gown which the much reported Comuress de Castellane provided for her trip across to her new home was an excellent model for spring and anumer traveling gowns, for women untitled and not supplied with the large amount of income which falls to the lot of this young weman. It was a plain shirt and sleeveless jacket, made with several falling capa collars that concented the sleeves to the clow. Six sile blouses were supplied for use with the costane. For the woman who would use the scale is in mouths, instead of six days, shirt waids could replace the sleeping to the collection of the same indivances. The capes are a desided relief to the simplicity of the jacket, and the model with this possibility of indefinite variations is a particularly useful and stylish one.—New York Correspondent. Mrs. Pinube Thomas of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors sine had Consamption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely curred her and sile says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, anifered from a dreadful cold, approaching Gonsumption, tried without result everything else, then hought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Webster Bros' drug store.
